GLENVIEW COMMUNITY CHURCH

October 5, 2011

HOLY LISTENING

I've been doing a lot of listening lately. I've heard stories and tales from all ages of what's going on in their lives, what they like or don't like about the church these days.

I've been listening and talking with my mother as she adjusts to widowhood. Every once in a while she will say, "I miss him." And I know in some sense what she means. I miss my step dad as well. Even those silly card games I dreaded. I miss them.

Sometimes I listen to my young grandchildren chatter on the phone about their days at pre-school or first grade. That kind of listening takes a special attentive ear to sort out their words and excitement.

I've been listening to you who are worried about illnesses and dying. I've been listening to your hopes and dreams for your church. I've heard stories about your families, your work, and your faith journeys. Quaker writer Douglas Steere calls this Holy Listening. He says, "Holy Listening – to listen another's soul into life, into a condition of disclosure and discovery, may be almost the greatest service that any human being ever performs for another. This kind of listening is life-giving."

Especially during a time of transition it is important for us to be holy listeners. Think how much better you feel when you have shared a concern, a prayer request, a moment of joy with your holy listener. You listen to us as well – the staff, the ministers, the lay leaders. And we continue building this community of faith to listen to one another, to affirm each other, to be honest and direct, and to offer and then receive forgiveness. That's all part of building up the community of faith. But when we each take time daily to do some "holy listening" I think we are preparing to receive a blessing and to bring us together even more. A portion of one of my favorite poems says it best:

*When someone deeply listens to you
It is like holding out a dented cup
You've had since childhood
And watching it fill up with Cold, fresh water.
When it balances on top of the brim,
You are understood.
When it overflows and touches your skin,
You are loved.*

*When someone deeply listens to you,
The room where you stay
Starts a new life
And the place where you wrote
Your first poem
Begins to glow in your mind's eye.
It is as if gold has been discovered!*

*When someone deeply listens to you,
Your bare feet are on the earth
And a beloved land that seemed distant
Is now at home within you.*

--John Fox
"Finding What You Didn't Lose"

May you take a moment today for some holy listening.

Pam

Break Bread Together

The Fellowship Board's "Break Bread Together" dinner program is back!

What is it? An opportunity to build and nourish new relationships with fellow GCC members by breaking bread together (enjoying dinner), either at a member's home or at a restaurant.

Who can join? All adults (singles or couples) are welcome to sign up. You will be placed in groups of 7-8 with the goal of gathering people together who do not know each other, so that new GCC friendships can be fostered. The intent is that the groups will stay together and meet three more times over the coming year. We are hoping to have the groups meet for the first time in late October or November, probably on a Saturday night. If you already joined a group last spring, you should be hearing shortly from someone in your group about getting together again this fall.

What should I do if I am interested?

Watch for an e-mail blast, Bulletin notice, and information in the church office soon for how to sign up. You can also sign up at coffee hour on October 9th and 16th.

Other questions? Contact C.J. Sultz at cj.sultz@us.mcd.com or (847)657-7079.

Middle Schoolers

Attention all middle school students, you are invited to participate in GCC's middle school youth service club. This year we will meet October through March on the second Sunday of each month. We will gather, complete a service project and then have time for games and other activities. It is a good way to get a service project completed for Confirmation and school while enjoying church friends at the same time. There is also a correlation between attendance in 678 Club and the High School Youth group PYF. 678 Club is run by Elizabeth Ciccolini, the Youth Director and High School students.

OCTOBER 9TH:

First 678 Club from 2:00-3:30 p.m. in the Youth Room. We will be assembling hygiene kits for the Night Ministry, please bring toothpaste, toothbrushes, soap, small lotions, wet ones, or wash clothes. Hope to see you there!

Confirmands may choose to do their 8 worship reflections at any of the worship services offered at GCC (8 a.m., 10 a.m. or 4 p.m. on Second Sunday.) Extra worksheets are available on the bulletin board near the Youth Room.
